VINNIE AND THE LUBRICATORS

If you're craving some rockin', funky, bluesy tunes and some country t'wang be sure to check out Vinnie and the Lubricators, America's premiere "Rock, Blues, Reggae and Soul" review, with a lineup of songs sure to satisfy show-goers of any generation.

Vinnie and the Lubricators encompass a wide range of genres in their music, offering elements of classic rock, country, blues, and soul with hints of reggae and funk thrown in the mix. You'll hear all your favorite 60's, 70's, 80's and 90's songs from top artists like Al Green, Wilson Pickett, Stevie Wonder, James Brown, The Bee Gees, The Police, Men at Work, The Allman Brothers Band, Bob Marley, and many more.

"It all goes back to roots music for us. We offer a lot of originality and creativity and we love to jam," says Mele. "We're all about spontaneity and really feed off each other. We like to take our audience on an emotional ride through our set, and a lot of our grooves get people on the dance floor."

Success speaks for itself, and in the world of musical entertainment, the name Vinnie and the Lubricators is synonymous with success. Why? Time after time, Vinnie and the Lubricators have proven themselves at countless events including state and county fairs, festivals, corporate and private shows, theaters, casinos, speedways, car shows, conventions, trade shows, weddings and much more.

Vinnie and the Lubricators is one of the most requested vintage rock and roll shows. Providing good family entertainment, memories and professionalism! That's a proven fact.

Always dedicated to the success of your special event, Vinnie and the Lubricators have been mesmerizing and winning the hearts of thousands of clients. Playing their authentic style of music mixed with their own comedic style of entertainment, Vinnie and the Lubricators have always made the enjoyment of their clients and fans the number one priority.

The members of Vinnie and the Lubricators—whose name is derived from their shared love of mechanics and cars especially—have a laid back composure and a tight synchronization like that of a well-oiled machine. Vinnie Mele with his rich blues-style vocals and smooth guitar riffs is joined on stage by Chris Shepard providing steady beats on the drums, Jason Feathers bringing the Hammond Organ to life, and Jeremy Harmon laying down the low end with his tasty bass licks.

Vinnie will captivate you with his voice as well as his smooth guitar melodies; Jason will energize you with his dynamic keyboard grooves; Chris will get your heart pounding to the rhythm of his drums; and Jeremy will drive you with his bass as he provides the pulse of the band.

Playing an average of 130 engagements per year, Vinnie and the Lubricators have a phenomenal repeat booking rate. So, check out Vinnie and the Lubricators if you want some toe tapping, hip shaking, can't stay in your seat kind of music. IT'S ALWAYS A MUSIC PARTY!
